Althorne Estate Chardonnay , Essex, 2021 It's thrilling on the nose, uplifting, and exciting, putting you in mind of a fine St Romain/Meursault. Not the rich kind, but the more lithe kind, which I love. The palate feels electrically charged, with notes of lemon, and the faintest hint of butter, beurre noisette, and toast, and very fine delicate oak, and a touch of flint.			72
Wild Boy Chardonnay , California, 2021 From one of California's top-rated vineyards, this outstanding Chardonnay displays fleshy brioche and ripe citrus flavours. Made in more of a Burgundian style rather than the big, rich, overly oaked examples that are becoming past fashionable. Beautifully constructed, fresh pear and white peach scents are sharpened by citrus notes.			80

Blackenbrook Family Reserve Pinot Noir, Nelson, New Zealand, 2019 Enticing nose of stewed raspberry, wild cherry, mulberry and pepper; good breadth with impressive weight and ripe, grainy tannins. Still quite primary and youthful, but grows in complexity with complex meaty notes appearing in the glass.			67
Metzer Shiraz, Stellenbosch, South Africa, 2018 Vegan The wine shows pronounced floral notes backed up by white pepper, blackberries and violets as well as a hint of olive. Notes of dried flowers are folded into the background. The palate is powerful yet graceful featuring ripe fruit complemented by savoury notes which keeps the wine balanced. The stems from the whole bunch portion add a chalky texture while at the same time maintaining freshness.			73
Althorne Estate Pinot Noir, Crouch River, Essex, 2020 Lots of deliciousness! It tastes surprisingly like Burgundy. It's lovely, smooth and interesting. It's just so wonderful that it comes from England. The tannins are really easy. The acidity is not too high.			75
Paolo Manzone Barolo DOCG Serralunga, Piedmont, Italy, 2019 Vegan Perfumed notes of roses, maraschino cherry, damson and a touch of blackberry with gamey notes emerging with air. Ripe, fine tannins and poised, balanced acidity. Classically constructed yet approachable.			90
Val di Suga Brunello di Montalcino, Tuscany, Italy, 2016 On the nose the wine offers up complex aromas of roasted plum, dark cherry, truffle, wild herbs and roasted meats, while the palate is full yet structured with ripe, firm tannins and excellent length. In its element with rich food, this powerful, expressive wine mellows after time in a decanter or glass.			99
Cuvelier Los Andes Grand Malbec, Mendoza, Argentina, 2016 Vegan Ripe black cherries, blackberries, liqueur de cassis and plum jam flavours with notes of sweet spices, Belgian chocolate, vanilla and cinnamon.
